The competition will be held on 18th April 2015 and is open to individual performers aged 19 and under who have performed at one of the Sandbach Concert Series Spotlight concerts during 2014.

Prizes of music bursaries will be awarded to the winners of each age group with trophies for the outright winners. All participants will receive an award for taking part. There will be a Senior section for secondary school age and a Junior section for the primary school age. The successful entrants will be notified early in 2015 to enable them to prepare for the competition. Entrants will be considered from the Spotlight concerts from February 2014 through to November 2014.
